

Crisis Intervention Services

CIS provides sexual assault and housing services in the following counties: Poweshiek, Mahaska, Keokuk, Monroe, Wapello, Jefferson, Appanoose and Davis. We also provide assistance for victims of violent crime in the following counties: Mahaska, Monroe, Wapello, Appanoose and Davis.

CIS provides counseling and support services for victims of violent crimes to help families, friends and loved ones begin to cope with their loss and navigate necessary systems and services for:

Homicide

Attempted murder

Sexual assault

Assault

Burglary

Robbery

Hate Crime

OWI accident

Other violent crimes

Crisis Intervention Services provides:

- Information and Referrals: Information to increase knowledge of community resources and programs available.
- Counseling and Support Groups: Short-term crisis counseling, advocacy, and support groups for survivors.
- Criminal/Legal Advocacy: Support during crime reports, criminal and civil court proceedings, and obtaining pro se protective orders.
- Economic Advocacy: Assistance with money management, job seeking and financial literacy courses.

- Medical Advocacy: Assistance in obtaining necessary medical services. Accompaniment and support during sexual assault examinations.
- Sexual Assault Response Team (SART) Coordination: Meetings held to create a coordinated response to sexual assault cases from victim advocates, law enforcement, medical services and legal services.

Advocates are available 24 hours a day via our hotlines.

If you are in immediate need of assistance please call our hotline.

All Crisis Intervention services are free of charge and confidential.

Sexual Assault/Violent Crime Hotline: 1-800-270-1620.

Emergency Housing Hotline: 1-844-673-5499.

To schedule an appointment with an advocate in person please call our Main Office at 641-673-0336. We can meet with you at our offices or a safe location.